Oh Bwunhilda, you're so wovevy...

THE 50 GREATEST CARTOONS

Elmer and Bugs in "What's Opera, Doc?", 1957
directed by Chuck Jones

A couple of years back, over 1,000 people were asked to generate their own list of the fifty greatest cartoons ever made. Ballots were sent to the membership of ASIFA - the international animated film society, 100 animation studios, film critics at more than 100 publications, and many other people working in or studying the field of animation. The results have been compiled in a new book titled "The Fifty Greatest Cartoons" - listed in our book section.

Now, we could make you buy the book to find out who the winners are - but as a public service we have reprinted the list for you right here. What? You see a cartoon listed that you think is undeserving? What? They left out your favorite? Outrageous! Well, just in case you feel the urge to screen a few of these cartoons, either to reacquaint yourself with old favorites or to verify your feelings of injustice, we have indicated where the cartoons can be found on video in our catalog. (The numbers in parentheses refer to the numbered listing of tape and laserdisc titles in the adjacent column).

ADOPT-A-CARTOON

The Animation Preservation Project, sponsored by ASIFA-Hollywood, is raising funds to help save films made before 1950, which were made on nitrate stock and are rapidly deteriorating. An "Adopt-A-Cartoon" program allows individuals or groups to sponsor a film of their choice. The average cost of restoration runs around $800, all of which goes toward lab costs. Since 1992, the project has helped restore 8 films - films that otherwise would have disappeared forever. For more information, please contact ASIFA-Hollywood, PO Box 787, Burbank, CA 91503.

You may have noticed that 4 of the top 5 cartoons in the Greatest Cartoons poll were directed by Chuck Jones. That's an astounding achievement, don't you think? Most people should be content to rest on laurels like that, but not Mr. Jones. No — at the age of 82, Chuck has inaugurated a film production company and is back in the business of making theatrical short cartoons! The first effort we'll get to see is a brand-new Roadrunner cartoon entitled "Chariots of Fur" - scheduled to open this winter in theatres across the country.

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT VIDEO:

All our videocassettes are available in the VHS-NTSC format. To our overseas customers who desire PAL or SECAM formats: sorry, we can't help you.

VHS RECORDING SPEEDS:

VHS videocorders offer 3 record/playback speeds: SP (Standard Play/2 hr.), LP (Long Play/4 hr.) or SLP/EP (Super Long Play/Extended Play/6 hr.). Nowadays some VCR's offer only 2 speeds: SP and SLP/EP. There are a handful of tapes offered here that are only available in the LP mode. Please be aware that some VCR's cannot play LP tapes properly. Check your machine before ordering.

We're concerned with quality at Whole Toon, so we generally offer only SP tapes in the catalog. But sometimes a title is available only in EP mode, so we make an exception. Lately, more and more manufacturers are switching to EP recording in an effort to cut costs. When we know a tape is EP, we always indicate it, but sometimes we don't know if we haven't actually viewed the tape ourselves.

LASERDISC FORMATS:

There are two laserdisc formats: Extended Play/CLV (Constant Linear Velocity) and Standard Play/CAV (Constant Angular Velocity). Unlike videotape, there is no difference in picture quality between the two formats. However, only the more expensive CAV format can produce freeze-frames, variable playback speeds, multiple soundtracks and other special effects (unless you own a very expensive laserdisc player with a digital frame buffer). If you wish to study a film frame by frame, you will need to get the CAV format. (CAV also is the only video format with a true 1 to 1 film frame to video frame correspondence).

MORATORIUM is a term you'll run across often in the video world. It means that the title is no longer being produced by the manufacturer. When a tape is on moratorium, we can no longer get any from the manufacturer, although we may still have some stock left, or still be able to find a distributor with some unsold copies.

Laserdiscs are notorious for changeable availability. Many of the smaller suppliers will announce a release date for a laserdisc and wait to see how much interest there is before they actually produce the title. Often the title will be delayed or sometimes cancelled altogether. When a title is produced, it is often pressed in such small quantities that it sells out quickly. The supplier may then wait until enough back orders build up before re-pressing the title. For the preceding reasons, please be patient with us when ordering laserdiscs. If you see something you want, it's often advisable to grab it while you have the chance.

If a tape has gone on moratorium before this catalog was printed, we haven't listed it unless we're sure we can provide a decent supply. If you're looking for a tape that's not listed (i.e. many of the Disney classics), it's worth calling us to ask about it. Although we don't have it in sufficient quantity to list it, we may still be able to come up with a few copies here and there.

Our special thanks to Chuck Jones Film Productions for providing us with the limited edition cels used on our covers.

We strive to provide our customers with the most comprehensive selection of animation on Earth. We buy from hundreds of sources in several countries and we're constantly searching for more. After years of serving animation fans, scholars and professionals, we've gotten a pretty fair idea of what you want from us, and with each new catalog we try to focus more efficiently on it.

We take the Whole in Whole Toon Catalog seriously. Our customers expect to find cartoons here, so we continue to expand our video section with each new catalog. From the latest Disney feature release to the most obscure art film on some small video label— if it's animated (and we can get our hands on it), you'll find it listed here. We try to apply a consistent criteria to our selections, eliminating the "storybook" videos that often get passed off as animation, and live-action puppetry such as the Muppets or "Supermarionation" like The Thunderbirds and Captain Scarlett. This also goes for books. We offer just about every currently in-print book dealing with animation, but we don't carry comic books, Far Side collections, or children's storybooks.

If you don't see what you're looking for, please ask for it. Unless we have an adequate supply on hand, we won't list out of print book titles or discontinued video titles. However, we just might still have some around so it can't hurt to ask. Also keep in mind that new books and videos are released constantly, while our full catalog is printed only twice a

7 MINUTES

The Life & Death of the American Animated Cartoon

Norman M. Klein (1993)

Approaching the subject from a decidedly scholarly point of view, Klein examines the Gestalt of the Hollywood cartoon. He traces the social and aesthetic sensibilities that shaped and were reflected in the works of Disney, Warners, MGM and others, and reviews the graphics, scripts and marketing of each era. He details the internal production and political structures of the studios and discovers links between cartoon and live action movies, newspapers, popular illustration, and the entertainment architecture of Disneyland. Thoughtful analysis for the serious toon student.

THE 50 GREATEST CARTOONS

As Selected by 1,000 Animation Professionals

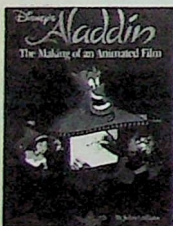

Edited by Jerry Beck (1994)

Anytime you select a finite number of the 'greatest' cartoons, and even rank them, you're bound to ignite a firestorm of arguments. But that's good - so pick up this book and start trashing the selections! Jerry Beck had the unenviable job of compiling the 1,000 ballots returned by animation professionals and ranking the cartoons in accordance with the voting. Each cartoon gets a big spread with credits, Jerry's plot synopsis and background info, and oodles of color photos. Regardless of your opinion of the rankings, it's an incredible reference volume and conversation starter.

AMERICAN ANIMATED FILMS:

The Silent Era, 1897-1929

Denis Gifford (1990)

Arranged chronologically by series, this is the first complete annotated listing of all the animated films produced in the United States before the advent of sound. The book forms a companion volume to the author's British Animated Films 1895-1985 and will prove a boon to researchers of the history and development of animation. In this volume is information that has been scattered and virtually inaccessible for more than half a century.

ANIMATED TV SPECIALS:

Complete Directory to The First 25 Years, 1962-1987

George W. Woolery (1989)

Like Woolery's previous book Children's Television, this volume is an amazing feat of research. It is an encyclopedic listing of all the special animated presentations aired on various networks or syndicated extensively in the U.S. from the first in 1962 through the 1987 season. It's the first book to trace the history, growth and development of animated films broadcast on American TV through descriptive profiles. Each entry includes broadcast history, production credits, narrators & voices and a lengthy synopsis and analysis. The book is thoroughly cross-referenced. A truly awesome and complete reference tool for researchers and fans alike.

ANIMATING CULTURE

Hollywood Cartoons from the Sound Era

Eric Smooden (1993)

Smooden explores the animated short and the system that mass-produced them from a scholarly viewpoint. He examines how they were exhibited in theatres and how they fit into the overall bill of fare presented to the audience. Who did they speak to? What did they say about race, class and gender? What were the social functions of Donald Duck and Minnie Mouse? He argues that cartoons appealed to a wide audience, not just children, and contributed to public debate about political matters. His analysis of the multiple discourses embedded in a variety of cartoons reveals the complex and sometimes contradictory ways that animation dealt with class relations, labor, imperialism and censorship.

ANIMATION BY FILMATION

Michael Swanigan & Darrell McNeil (1993)

A comprehensive guide to the works of Filmation - the studio behind He-Man, Fat Albert, The Groovie Ghoules, and a host of other Saturday morning staples. The book is organized in three main chapters: Animation, Live Action, and Storyboards. The first two chapters list all the shows produced by Filmation - in all their various incarnations - and include for each show an overall synopsis, a broadcast history, production credits, Cast of characters and voice credits, and a complete list of episode titles. Just a few of the series covered are Aquamant, The Archies, Bravestarr, Fat Albert, The Groovie Ghoules, He-Man, Shazam!, Space Sentinels and Tarzan & The Super 7.

ANIMATION FROM SCRIPT TO SCREEN

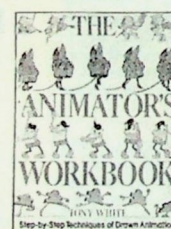

Shamus Culhane (1988)

Shamus Culhane, the animator of the dwarfs' march in Snow White, of Pluto, of countless other Disney sequences as well as those of other studios, makes it possible to learn a concrete skill from a book. Covering every aspect of film animation, from basic mechanics to giving creativity full play, and including writing, recording, acting, dialogue - even how to manage an animation studio of one's own, Culhane lives up to the book's title. Written by a man who knows and loves his subject and has a gift for communicating his thoughts.

BEFORE MICKEY

The Animated Film, 1898-1928

Donald Crafton (1993)

In this revised edition of his 1984 book, Crafton's scholarship is quite lively, and his descriptions evocative and often funny. He has compellingly filled the gaps in the area of silent animated films that have been so overlooked over the years. The documentary material covering artistic, commercial, and technological developments in the USA and Europe will prove invaluable to animation specialists. The book chronicles the achievements of Emile Cohl, Otto Messmer, Winsor McCay, John Randolph Bray, and many others, as the technique of film animation advanced from the early Zoetrope devices and "trick films" toward the compelling new art form it eventually became. All in all, Crafton has succeeded in writing a factual, scholarly reference work that is a pleasure to read for recreation.

CARTOON ANIMATION:

Introduction To A Career

Milton Gray (1991)

Milton Gray is an animator, director, writer, and producer, who has worked on 16 theatrical features, from The Jungle Book to Polltergeist, and has directed numerous television shows from Thundarr to The Simpsons. He provides a detailed look inside the animation industry, and how you can qualify as quickly as possible for employment. The text covers practical subjects like necessary drawing skills, wage scales, and details to consider when budgeting a project. He also discusses recent employment trends in the industry, and offers some candid opinions on the quality of certain animated shows and genres.

Hugh Kenner (1994)

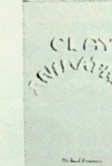

Literary critic Hugh Kenner has written a compact, incisive examination of Chuck Jones and his body of work. Kenner notes the biographical details, but focuses on the films themselves, and the time and place in which they were made. His insights into the humor, the technical virtuosity, and the originality of Jones' best work betray the author's deep affection for the medium and Jones in particular. A modest man, Jones relates that a pig cannot be made into a racehorse. What might be reasonably hoped for, he says, is 'a mighty fast pig.' Kenner argues that Jones has indeed made himself a racehorse.

CLAY ANIMATION

Michael Frierson (1994)

Michael Frierson, an award-winning animator, brings an impressive depth and breadth of knowledge of clay animation to this delightful, instructive book. In addition to a lucid analysis of the artistic process of clay and its problems and potential, Frierson explores clay's early history from the early 1900's ceramic moving sculptures through clay films of the 1990's. Chapters are devoted to Art Clokey and Will Vinton, along with filmographies of dozens of animators, including TV commercials, TV specials, and feature film special effects.

THE DISNEY VILLAIN

Frank Thomas & Ollie Johnston (1993)

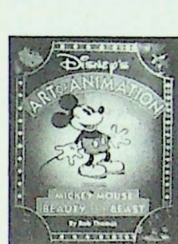

For generations, Disney villains have had a special place in the minds of moviegoers. In fact they're often more interesting than the heroes and heroines. People love to hate Maleficent, Stromboli, and Jafar. Disney veterans Thomas and Johnston have established a respected place among animation authors with their previous books, and here they feature the villains with full color portraits, spot illustrations, and an inside view of the Disney animation process. Magnificently packaged, with galathea and an original hologram on the jacket.

The Film • The Art • The Vision

Frank Thompson (1993)

Learn how Tim Burton began work on this film over ten years ago - long before he directed Beetlejuice, Edward Scissorhands or Batman. See his sketchpad where he roughed out his vision of the film, and read excerpts from his poem, upon which the film is based. Take a close look at the storyboards, see the character designs, examine the puppet armatures, see the fabricators mold, paint, and detail the 227 puppets. Watch the animators painstakingly film the story frame-by-frame and learn how computers assisted them. Listen to the insights of creator Tim Burton and director Henry Selick. You can begin to appreciate the pioneering nature of this movie (an advance on the replacement technique developed by George Pal) and the incredible creative effort behind it.

THE NIGHTMARE BEFORE CHRISTMAS (STORYBOOK)

Tim Burton (1993)

Tim Burton has taken his original poem of 'The Nightmare Before Christmas' and added his own original illustrations to make this unusual children's storybook. It tells the tale of Jack Skellington, who tires of ruling Halloweenland and is delighted to stumble across Christmas Town. Jack is so taken with the idea of Christmas that he kidnaps Santa in order to take over the Christmas Eve gift delivery chores himself. Of course Jack's ideas of appropriate Christmas gifts are a bit too much for most kids, so it's no surprise when his sleigh is shot down. In all, this is a unique format to view Tim Burton's artwork, and get familiar with his twisted outlook on the holidays.

PRINCE OF THE MAGIC KINGDOM

Michael Eisner and the Re-Making of Disney

Joe Flower (1991)

Joe Flower's unauthorized account of Disney's comeback from the post-Wall doldrums is notable for the wealth of detailed inside information. He gets the reader through all the stock maneuverings and takeover attempts without a trace of tedium, meanwhile driving home just how immense an empire Disney built in his lifetime. Best of all, Flower imparts a true understanding of how Wall's death left the company rudderless, with aging theme parks, worn-out formula movies, and a jumbled, spluttering feature animation department. When you finish this book, you will have much better idea of who Michael Eisner is, how he earned his whiz-kid image, and what he did to remedy Disney's weaknesses and capitalize on its strengths.

WALT DISNEY: HOLLYWOOD'S DARK PRINCE

Marc Eliot (1993)

In a Disney trashing reminiscent of Richard Schickel's 1968 opus 'The Disney Version', Marc Eliot does his best to shatter all the standard images of the mouse-meister. As he recites the now standard resumé of Walt's career, Eliot cites rumor, hearsay and anecdotal evidence that Walt was something short of a saint. According to Eliot, Disney was a tyrannical, obsessive-compulsive, anti-Semitic, alcoholic, impotent, petty and bullying, illegitimate FBI stool pigeon. Undoubtedly there are kernels of truth in the author's portrait. The reader must judge for himself.

WALT DISNEY: A BIO-BIBLIOGRAPHY

Kathy Merlock Jackson (1993)

Over the course of the last 70 years, few people in Western civilization have occasioned more commentary, criticism or discussion than Walt Disney. The writings alone about the man and his works must number in the hundreds of thousands. That's where Ms. Jackson comes in. She has attempted to give an overview of what has been written over the years - good and bad - and to summarize many of the areas of modern culture that Disney has influenced. An entire chapter is devoted to Disney's speeches and interviews. The largest chapter lists many of the main sources of writings, abstracting major works and listing hundreds of other references for those who wish to do their own research. Additional indexes include chronologies, filmography, awards, and more.

WALT IN WONDERLAND

The Silent Films of Walt Disney

Russell Merritt & J.B. Kaufman (1992)

From 1921 to 1928, Walt Disney made upwards of 90 silent films, including the Alice comedies and Oswald cartoons. Years before Mickey Mouse, he recruited an extraordinary array of talent that included Ubbe Iwerks, Rudy Ising, Carl Stalling, Hugh Harman and Friz Freleng. Drawing on interviews with co-workers, business papers, promotional materials, scripts, drawings, and correspondence, the authors have done a remarkable job of reconstructing Disney's silent film career. Those interested in the pre-Mickey days will find this book an unparalleled source of facts, critical insight, and rare imagery - including much artwork from Disney's own hand. Presented in a beautifully designed book that includes a detailed and complete filmography up to and including Steamboat Willie.

AN AMERICAN RETROSPECTIVE THROUGH ANIMATION

60 min. 1948-54 [John Sutherland]

These educational short films were produced for Harding College to illustrate how gosh-darn great the American free-enterprise system is - especially compared to socialism. They are well-animated, well-written and entertaining, and convey a great sense of postwar American values. 6 titles: an inventor becomes a soap tycoon in Going Places; the American worker leads the world in Meet King Joe; inflation is explained in Why Play Leap Frog; the socialist system is mercilessly parodied in Albert in Blunderland; business competition is illustrated in Inside Cackle Corner; and the American consumer is celebrated in The Little Giant.

ANIMAL FARM

72 min. 1954 [DeRochemont]

George Orwell's dark view of the future is animated in this well-done feature directed by John Halas. The animals of Farm Manor revolt and name their new property 'Animal Farm'. For a while, their socialist utopia thrives, but soon the pigs assume more power and the grand ideals evaporate into a totalitarian society.

David Hand was one of the key figures in developing the Disney style of full animation. He directed Snow White and Bambi; plus many Oscar-winning Silly Symphonies. Following WWII, Hand went to England to produce a series of 19 films for the J. Arthur Rank Organization. The films range from stylized fantasies of regional Britain to fully realized character animation featuring Ginger Nutt. Film print quality varies. 4 titles: Ginger Nutt's Forest Dragon, Ginger Nutt's Bee Bother, Fantasy On London and It's A Lovely Day.

THAT TIME FORGOT

THE UB IWERKS COLLECTION

A 7-volume series programmed by Greg Ford, celebrating the pioneering solo animation work of Ub Iwerks and the Van Beuren Studio. Characters like Flip The Frog, Cubby Bear, Willie Whopper and Molly Moo Cow may not be household names, but the people behind them -- Ub Iwerks, Grim Natwick, Frank Tashlin, Irv Spence, Bill Littlejohn, Burt Gillette, Shamus Culhane and Carl Stalling -- make for a veritable Who's Who of master cartoon makers. This series unearths important missing links in animation history, mostly mastered from the restored original negatives, that have not been seen in decades.

COOL WORLD

101 min. 1992 [Ralph Bakshi] Stereo
Bakshi's most recent, and perhaps most ambitious film is a combination of animation and live action starring Kim Basinger and Brad Pitt. The creator of cartoon bombshell Holli Would is pulled by his creation into Cool World: a land where all the cartoon characters ("doodles") live and occasionally interact with visiting humans. Cool World has been compared to Who Framed Roger Rabbit, but taken to extremes only Ralph Bakshi would dare attempt. The film has a striking look and feel to it, and the animation is Bakshi's best to date. Laserdisc is letterboxed.

THE CURIOUS ADVENTURES OF MR. WONDERBIRD

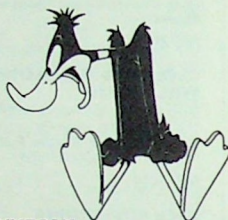

(La Bergere et Le Ramoneur)
64 min. 1953 [Paul Grimault]
In this visually striking French animated feature, the outrageous Mr. Wonderbird (voiced by Peter Ustinov) narrates the story of a most bizarre enchanted castle. Paintings of a shepherd girl and a chimney sweep come to life, and the evil, concealed King decides he must have the girl for himself. When she and the chimney sweep run away, it takes all the help that Mr. Wonderbird and his friends can muster to save them from the pursuing King. The final sequence of a gigantic mechanical monster and destruction of the palace contains stunning imagery that rivals the best examples of Japanimation. French dubbed in English. LP Speed.

HARRY SMITH: HEAVEN AND EARTH MAGIC

66 min. 1957-62 [Harry Smith]
Applying an extension of Surrealist and 'cut up' techniques to animate collages of familiar images, Smith transmutes these elements as an alchemist would. A bit like dismembered Victorian valentines enacting a vaudeville version of the Egyptian Book of the Dead.

MFV 083 29.95

HARRY SMITH: EARLY ABSTRACTIONS

24 min. 1941-57 [Harry Smith]
Seven abstract films from the wizard of animation that include the first hand-painted abstract films made in America. Smith's early non-figurative works are among the most respected avant garde cartoons ever made.

WAR 716 14.95

HONEY, I SHRUNK THE KIDS

90 min. 1989 [Disney] HiFi Stereo
Not that this isn't a very funny movie in it's own right, but it's here in the Toon Catalog because it comes with Tummy Trouble, the first stand-alone theatrical Roger Rabbit short. And it also features some great animated opening titles.

DIS 909 19.95

DIS 909AS (Laserdisc) 29.95

HOPPO THE HIPPO

35 min. [Soviet]
This tape contains three cartoons from the former Soviet Union - all of which are pretty crude but nonetheless fascinating to Western eyes. Hoppo The Hippo is an educational short in which a hippopotamus' fear of hypodermic needles teaches all citizens the importance of submitting to their jaundice vaccinations (really!). The Champ features a soviet Tom & Jerry-like duo - Big Bad Wolf and Bugs Rabbit - carrying their hijinks to the 1980 Moscow Olympics. (Unlike the other two shorts on the tape, this one is not dubbed, but has it's original Russian soundtrack). TV Blues is more Wolf & Rabbit - this time invading a Moscow TV station and wreaking havoc. This tape is well worth watching - despite the crude animation and awful dubbing, the context of the stories and the cultural references therein provide a fascinating peek at everyday life in Soviet Russia circa 1980. LP Speed.

UAV 4167 7.95

THE HOUNDCATS: ROOTIN' TOOTIN' TROUBLESHOOTER

45 min. 1972-73 [DePatie-Freleng]

63 min. [John & Faith Hubley]
6 titles: Mother Earth (Maureen Stapleton) and Father Time (Dizzy Gillespie) observe the state of life on our planet in Voyage To Next. Academy Award nominee with music by Dizzy Gillespie. The song "Tenderly" provides a musical backdrop for the love story in Tender Game. The Goddess of Fertility and Death fight over mankind's future in Eggs. A runaway city on legs matches wits with a wily farmer in Urbanissimo. The paintings of Gregorio Prestopino convey the sights of Harlem in Harlem Wednesday. Benny Carter and Lionel Hampton provide the musical backdrop for Adventures of An - as a baby grows up and regains his appreciation of life through the birth of his own child. (Note to Schools & Libraries: Public performance rights included)

BMG 75172 59.95

Inside Termite Terrace

Bosko Video has assembled this collection of Warner Brothers Looney Tunes and Merrie Melodies from the 30's and 40's - created by the 'Termite Terrace' production teams of Tex Avery, Bob Clampett, Chuck Jones and Friz Freleng. Interspersed between cartoons is extremely rare live footage of the animators and directors: clowning around behind the scenes and performing for in-house spoofs.

LITTLE NEMO: ADVENTURES IN SLUMBERLAND

86 min. 1992 [Hemdale/TMS]
Based on Winsor McCay's comic strip, this impressive film was 10 years in the making. An American/Japanese production, directed by William Hurtz and Masami Hata, Nemo captures something of McCay's rich period look while utilizing lavish animation techniques. Songs by the Sherman Brothers add a lovely mood to the visual feast. Ray Bradbury's screen treatment calls for Little Nemo to save the life of a noble king, outmatch the power of a mighty monster, and win the heart of a lovely princess. Laserdisc version is widescreen.

Mr. Magoo

Mr. Magoo was featured in the theatrical shorts produced by UPA and distributed by Columbia Pictures. Based on Jim Backus' radio character 'The Man In The Club Car', a misinformed, loudmouthed businessman on a commuter train. The brainchild of John Hubley, created to counter the cute anthropomorphism rampant at the time. Voiced by Jim Backus, the nearsighted, bumbling Magoo was by far UPA's biggest star. PINOCCHIO (DISNEY)

88 min. 1940 [Disney] Hi-Fi Stereo
Considered by many to be the finest film Disney ever made, it cost a staggering 2.5 million dollars (about 60 million if made today). Directed by Ben Sharpsteen and Hamilton Luske, this is the tale of the little puppet who comes to life, and his struggles to grow up among some terribly bad influences. The scenes of Monstro the Whale and the multiplane camera opening sequence are worth the price of admission by themselves. Probably the definitive example of "Disney animation". MORATORIUM - LIMITED SUPPLIES.

TINY TOON ADVENTURES: HOW I SPENT MY VACATION

80 min. 1991 [Amblin/Warner] HiFi
This theatrical feature never made it to the theatres, going straight to video instead. Plucky Duck and Hampton head for (gasp and drool!) Happy World Land. Buster & Babs turn a squirt-gun fight into a globe-hopping adventure, and Elmyra treats the ferocious beasts in a drive-through safari park like cute widdle pudgy tats. The animation is very good, and the energy level remains high for all 80 minutes.

THE TUNE
80 min. 1992 [Bill Plympton]
Bill Plympton's one-man animated feature film is a tour de force. It's a series of musical shorts linked together by the story of Dell, who has to come up with a hit song within the hour. The songs are provided by Maureen McElheron and cover such subjects as Flooby Nooby, Lovesick Hotel and No Nose Blues. Plympton's distinctively warped style lends itself well to the subject matter. Tape also includes 'Draw', and 'The Making of The Tune'.

WINSOR McCAY: ANIMATION LEGEND:

100 min. [Winsor McCay]
Winsor McCay was one of the most influential artists in the history of animation. This exclusive collection contains every surviving film made by McCay, transferred from beautiful 35mm Cinematheque Quebecoise archival prints. The highlight of the collection is a stunning hand-colored copy of Little Nemo (1911), taken directly from the only known 35mm print in existence. Also included are How A Mosquito Operates, Gertie The Dinosaur, The Sinking of The Lusitania, Gertie On Tour, The Centaurs and Flip's Circus. The collection also features extensive liner notes by John Canemaker, an article by the Cinematheque's curator, Louise Beaudet, and comments from producer Albert Miller regarding the film to tape transfer. In addition to a newly composed score by R.J. Miller, all films were digitally recorded at the proper speed, and letterboxed in the original 1.33:1 aspect ratio. Color & B&W.

HOW TO ORDER

Mail your completed order form, along with a check or money order for the full amount made payable to: WHOLE TOON ACCESS.

Or you can charge your purchase to your Visa, MasterCard or Discover Card. Please do not send cash. Sorry, no C.O.D.'s.

Please give us a street address in case we need to ship your order via UPS, and please make sure to include your apartment or suite number, if any.

To order by phone please call us at (206) 391-8747 from 9 to 6 Pacific time - Monday through Friday. Between Thanksgiving and Christmas we will also be open on Saturdays.

DELIVERY

Most orders will be shipped within 10 days, but occasionally we need longer, so please allow 4 to 6 weeks for delivery. If you need delivery by a certain date, please make sure to alert us. Most orders are shipped via Priority Mail or UPS Ground. Back-ordered items will sometimes be sent via 4th Class Mail.

DAMAGED GOODS

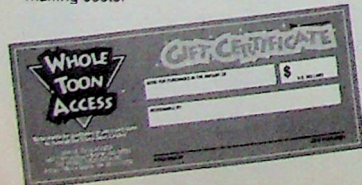

If you receive goods that are damaged in transit, please alert the carrier first (UPS or the Post Office) to report the damage. Then notify us so we can rush you a replacement for the damaged merchandise.

GUARANTEED

It's simple. If you're not completely satisfied with your purchase, we'll gladly give you a refund or exchange within 30 days. Please give us a call first before returning anything.

GIFT CERTIFICATES

Gift Certificates are available for any amount you specify, starting at $10. To order one, just write "gift certificate" on the order form and specify the amount in the Price column. If you want the certificate and a catalog sent directly to another person, please add $2.00 to cover the mailing costs.

THE

TOON TOKENS

When you order $100 worth of merchandise, you'll get a coupon good for $10 towards your next purchase. $150 gets you $15, $200 gets you $20, and so on - in $50 increments. These tokens are good toward your next purchase. To earn Toon Tokens, your order must total at least $100 worth of merchandise, exclusive of freight or tax. You do not earn the tokens if we are unable to fill part of your order and the total merchandise shipped falls below $100. If we have to back-order an item, and ship your order in two parts, you will receive the tokens when we ship the back-order to you.

Redeem your Toon Tokens by sending them with your next order, or by asking us to apply them when ordering by phone. You must order $100 to earn the tokens, but you can redeem them on any size purchase. Toon Tokens must be redeemed by the person they're issued to. They are redeemable for merchandise only - they cannot be exchanged for cash.

SHIPPING COSTS

USA AND POSSESSIONS:

VIDEOCASSETTES: $1.25 ea.

LASERDISCS: $1.50 ea.

ALL OTHERS: As indicated in the catalog, directly under the purchase price. If no charge is shown, then it's free.

THERE IS A $4.00 MINIMUM SHIPPING CHARGE PER ORDER.

So, if you order 4 videotapes, the charge is $4 \times $1.25 = \5.00 ; if you order 3 videotapes, the individual charges ($3 \times $1.25 = \3.75) fall below the minimum, so you must pay the $4.00 minimum. The standard shipping charges are calculated to reflect the cost of a typical-sized shipment. If you are placing a very large order, actual freight costs will be quite a bit less than our standard charges. In such a case, we can waive the standard charges and quote you a rate for your particular order.

CANADA:

Most orders are sent via Air Parcel Post. If you prefer, we can also ship via UPS to Canada. Please calculate shipping costs according to U.S. rates and then multiply the total by 1.5 to get the shipping cost for Canada.

OUTSIDE NORTH AMERICA:

If you charge your purchase to a Credit Card, just specify how you want the order shipped (Surface Mail, Air Mail, DHL etc.) and we will charge the actual shipping cost to your card. If you prefer to pay for your purchase with a money order, please send us your order without payment and we will tell you how much the shipping cost will be. Money orders must be in US Dollars and drawn on a bank with a US branch.

RUSH DELIVERY

For an additional cost, we can send your order via Federal Express, DHL, UPS 2-Day or Next Day, or Express Mail. Please phone us first so we can confirm that your items are in stock and so that we can quote you a shipping cost for your order.
